- 1 I work in the kitchens at Buckingham Palace. We're always really busy when there's a garden party. We make the sandwiches – thousands of sandwiches – and the cakes too.
- 2 I work for a big charity. We help choose the guests for the royal garden parties. Sometimes, it's a difficult decision: everybody wants to go!
- 3 I work at Buckingham Palace. At royal garden parties, I have a special job: I introduce guests to the Queen. First, I ask them some questions so I can tell the Queen who they are, and why they are at the party. The Queen asks questions too – she's always interested.

Interviewer This week's programme is about ballroom dancing. My guests today are Nick and Shelley. They are both sixteen and are Junior Dance Champions. Welcome to the show.

Nick Thanks.

Interviewer How often do you train?

Shelley We have classes four times a week.

Nick Yes, and we practise every day after school.

Interviewer That's a lot of training. So, are you boyfriend and girlfriend?

Shelley No, we aren't! But we're good friends.

Nick And our mothers are good friends, too.

Shelley Yes, they help us with training and competitions.

Interviewer How many competitions do you do?

Nick We usually do four or five competitions every year.

Interviewer Which is your favourite dance?

Nick We love the samba. It's very fast. It's our best dance.

Interviewer When is your next competition?

Shelley Next month, and we want to win it.

Interviewer Well, the best of luck!

Nick Thank you.

Listening task LISTENING 16 page 24

Presenter Welcome to Fox FM local news! This morning we have in the studio Bob Partridge from the Kingsbridge Summer Festival. He's here to tell us about events next weekend. Hello, Bob. So, what is the next event in the Kingsbridge summer calendar?

Bob Well, you need your trainers for our next event – the Kingsbridge ten kilometre race and the family fun run! There are races for everybody. Run fast, run slow, run for fun, run for a medal, run for charity. Just come down and run!

Presenter Sounds good. When are these races, Bob?

Bob There are three races, and they start in the town centre on Saturday 16th July.

Presenter What time do the races start?

Bob The first race starts at 9 a.m. It's the Kingsbridge ten kilometre run. This is the race for athletes and for anyone who is a regular runner.

Presenter When does the next run start?

Bob The family fun run begins at 9.15. It's three kilometres long and it's for everybody: parents, grandparents, older children, friends. You all run together and there is a medal for everyone at the finish!

Presenter It does sound fun! What's the third race?

Bob This is the young children's race and it's at 9.30. It's 500 metres long and it's for children aged ten and under. All the children get a prize at the end of the race.

Presenter That sounds great for children. Is there any other information on the races, Bob?

Bob Well, at around 9.40, the winners of the ten kilometre race arrive at the finish line! The first three men and the first three women win prizes. Everyone else gets a medal for finishing the race.

Presenter OK everybody – go and join Bob and friends on Saturday 16th from nine o'clock in the morning. Go and run! Or go and cheer your family and friends! See you there!

Hi, I'm Cindy. I'm from California but I'm a student here at Stratton Mountain School. I live at the school, too. I share a bedroom with Celine. She's from France. I only live and study here in winter. The rest of the year I live with my family in California. From March to November I go to the school near my home. I come to Stratton School because I love skiing. I want to be a champion skier and I think this is the best place to train in America. The school day is a bit different here. We have breakfast at seven o'clock, then we go out to train all morning. After lunch we have lessons for four hours. Then we train again for two hours until dinnertime. It's busy, but I love it!

The Day of the Dead is an important festival in Mexico, and in some other countries too. For example, in Brazil, they call the festival 'finados' and celebrate it on 2nd November. But what about other parts of the world? Well, in Japan, people celebrate the Bon Festival in August. During this festival, Japanese people think about the spirits of family members who are dead. In China, there's a festival on 5th April called the Ching Ming Festival. People visit family graves and clean them. And there's a festival in Nepal called Gai Jatra. People wear costumes and decorate pictures of their dead family members. The festival often includes a cow because people believe that a cow can lead the spirits of their family members into the next world.

- 1 Maria I'm eighteen on Saturday and I'm having a party. I'm really looking forward to it. It's in a restaurant, and all my family and friends are coming. We're having dinner first, then there's a band, so we can all dance! I've got a fantastic new dress. It's long and red. I feel very grown up when I wear it.
- 2 James I'm going to a concert next month. It's my very first concert. I've got two tickets to see my favourite band of all time – Biffy Clyro. It's in London. I'm taking my best friend Alex. My dad's driving us there. Then we're staying in a hotel that night. I'm so excited. I can't wait.
- 3 Saffy My brother's getting married and I'm his bridesmaid. I have to wear a long dress. I really don't like dresses; I prefer jeans. But I'm happy about the wedding. It's in a big hotel in the city. It's quite a big wedding party; eighty people are coming. My brother's a bit nervous, but I'm looking forward to it, apart from the dress!
- 4 Marcus I've got an important tennis tournament to play this weekend. And I want to win it. It's my last chance to win the under-eighteens championship. I compete every year but I never win it. I'm always second! But this year my tennis is really good and I think that I can win it. I'm nervous, but excited, too.
- 5 Clare My sister Paula is having a baby next month. Paula is very big now. She's feeling fine, but she can't walk very fast! We don't know if it's a boy or girl. Paula says she doesn't mind, she just wants it to be healthy. But I want it to be a boy, because we haven't got a brother.

Alice What shall we do in Dublin? We've got two days. Let's look on this tourist website.

Jake OK.

Alice I want to go shopping. I want to buy some new clothes.

Jake Look. There's a good shopping centre near the city centre.

Alice It's probably quite expensive. Is there a market?

Jake Yes, there is.

Alice But is it open?

Jake Yes, it's open this Sunday. You can get cheap clothes there. And there's live music.

Alice Sounds great. We can go there on Sunday afternoon. What shall we do on Sunday morning? Go to the zoo, maybe?

Jake Mmm, I'm not very keen on zoos. They're a bit boring. Let's go and see some paintings. Is there a good art gallery?

Alice Let's see ... yes, the National Gallery. They've got over 2,500 paintings.

Jake OK. So that's the art gallery on Sunday morning and the market in the afternoon. Now, what about Saturday?

Alice Let's go to a park and have a picnic on Saturday afternoon.

Jake OK, there are lots of parks ... Phoenix Park looks nice. There's a photo here.

Alice Oh, yes. Very nice.

Jake In the morning let's go for a swim at Sandycove. It looks great.

Alice No, I don't want to go swimming! The water is really cold!

Jake Well, let's climb the Sugar Loaf. It's a mountain near Dublin. There are fantastic views of the city from the top.

Alice Fine. So, climb a mountain in the morning and go for a picnic in the afternoon. That's a good plan.

	Morning	Afternoon
Saturday	climb a mountain	picnic in the park
Sunday	art gallery	market

Presenter Welcome to Movie News! Today we have in the studio Kitty Williams, a young British actress who is making her first film in America. We want to ask her about her new Hollywood lifestyle. Hello, Kitty and welcome.

Kitty Thank you.

Presenter Kitty, you are living in Hollywood at the moment. Is the lifestyle different to London?

Kitty Yes, it's very different. For example, my friends in London never go to a gym! But you have to be healthy in Hollywood. Film producers want you to look good.

Presenter Well, you certainly look good! What do you do differently there?

Kitty First of all, I eat differently. That isn't difficult, because it's always very hot! So I eat a lot of salads and drink a lot of water. But I'm vegetarian, so I usually eat a lot of vegetables, anyway. But now I don't eat chips or pasta so often!

Presenter Is it easy to find healthy food in Hollywood?

Kitty Yes, it is. In restaurants you can order your meal with no butter, no mayonnaise, no sugar, and no salt! People can be very fussy eaters. But I'm not!

Presenter What else do you do to be healthy in Hollywood? Do you exercise?

Kitty Yes, I usually go running. I run in London and Hollywood. It's easy to do wherever you are. I get up in the morning, put on my trainers and go outside.

Then I run in one direction for twenty minutes. Then I run back again. Easy!

Everybody runs here, so you say hello to lots of people every morning!

Presenter Is there any exercise that you only do in Hollywood?

Kitty Yes. I go to yoga classes now. Everybody does yoga there. It helps you to relax when you are making a film.

Presenter So, how do you feel with your new lifestyle?

Kitty I feel great – fit and healthy! But actually, I miss London. It's much more fun!

Presenter And we miss you! Good luck with your new film!

Kitty Thank you!

- 1 Lily My hero is the pop singer, Adele. She was born in 1988 in London. She began to sing when she was four. Her favourite group was the Spice Girls. While she was at college she wrote and recorded three songs and a friend of hers put them on the Internet. Someone in a record company heard them and asked her to make an album. That's how she started. I think she's got a fantastic voice and she writes beautiful songs.
- 2 Dan My hero is Lionel Messi. He's a footballer. He's from Argentina but he plays for Barcelona in Spain. He was born in 1987. He moved to Barcelona when he was thirteen in 2000 and he played for the team for the first time when he was just sixteen years old. He's a fantastic player. In fact I think he's the best player in the world.
- 3 Emma My hero isn't someone famous. It's my grandmother. She died last year at the age of ninety-one. I loved talking to her and listening to stories about her life. She was a very brave person. In the Second World War she drove an ambulance in London. It was very dangerous work. After the war she got married and had a family. They were very poor so she had to work very hard. I really admire her!

Mount Fuji is a volcano. It's 3,776 metres high and it's about 100 kilometres south of Tokyo. It's a very beautiful volcano with snow at the top, and you can see it in a lot of traditional Japanese pictures. There are five lakes near Mount Fuji and visitors to these lakes have a great view of the volcano. There is also a forest at the base of the volcano. There are lots of stories about ghosts and other supernatural creatures in the forest – but the forest is still a popular place for walking. Mount Fuji is very popular with climbers – about 300,000 people climb the volcano every year. They usually do it in July or August. It's better to climb at night because then you get to the top when the sun is coming up. It's a very beautiful view. From October to May, the climb is more dangerous because the weather is much worse.

I visited Tokyo with my husband last August and we went on a day trip to Mount Fuji. We left the hotel in the morning after breakfast and travelled to Fuji by bus. We didn't climb the volcano, but the bus took us part of the way up. We had lunch on Mount Fuji – a traditional Japanese meal. Then in the afternoon, we went to one of the lakes near Mount Fuji – Lake Ashi – and went on a boat trip on the lake. From the lake, you get a beautiful view of Fuji. In the evening, we went back to Tokyo by train – it's one of the fastest trains in the world, so it didn't take very long. It was a fantastic day – the best day of the holiday, in my opinion.

Jenny Welcome to this week's British Breaks. Today we are looking at outdoor holidays in the southwest of England. First, we go to Tom reporting from Exmoor National Park in North Devon. Over to you, Tom.

Tom Thank you, Jenny. Here I am in Exmoor National Park. I'm standing in a beautiful valley, beside a river. There are green hills all around. I'm all alone. I can't see anyone. I can only hear the water. It is very calm and quiet. This is very unusual in southern England! Exmoor is an amazing place. And there are so many ways to enjoy it. I'm staying here for a few days to explore the park, and here are my suggestions so far.

First of all – walking. Exmoor is the perfect place to go walking. There are over 1,000 kilometres of walks through woods and valleys, beside lakes, and along beaches. The best thing is that it's free – you just need to bring strong walking shoes and lots of water to drink. The Exmoor National Park website has a fantastic list of guided walks.

Exmoor is also great for cycling. There are lots of cycling maps for easy and more difficult routes. There are also many organised cycling groups that you can join. Just remember to ride slowly because of walkers and horses!

And finally, climbing. I went climbing for the first time yesterday and it was a great experience. There are a number of outdoor centres in the national park. Their climbing instructors can help you to climb if you are a beginner like me, or to improve your climbing skills. You have to follow all the safety advice and learn to use the equipment, but it's exciting! Exmoor is perfect for climbers. It has some of the highest sea cliffs for climbing in the UK.

So, there is something for everyone. It's really beautiful here and I can recommend it for all the family! Back to you in the studio, Jenny.

Toby Lovely. Freya and I are going to France next week.

Olivia Are you going to go by plane?

Toby No, we're going to drive there in our car. What about you? Are you going to fly?

Olivia Yes, I am. First class, in fact. Well, it's a nice way to start the holiday.

Toby Yes, I'm sure.

Olivia And I'm going to stay in a five-star hotel by the sea.

Toby Very nice. We aren't going to stay in a hotel. We're going to camp.

Olivia Oh ... well, it's cheap, I suppose.

Toby We like camping.

Olivia Is the campsite near the sea?

Toby No, it's in the mountains. We're going to go climbing every day.

Olivia Really? I'm not into climbing. I'm going to spend every day on the beach – and every night, I'm going to visit a different nightclub!

Toby There aren't any nightclubs in the mountains.

Olivia Oh. So what are you going to do at night?

- Boy I'm going to look for a part-time job after the holidays.
Girl Really? Why?
Boy I want to start work in September. Just a few hours a week.
Girl Hmm. But it's more important to study at this age. You can think about work when you're older.
Boy I don't agree with you. I think it's good to have some experience of work at our age. I mean, we're sixteen! And I want to earn some money.
Girl That's a good point. I really want a new phone but I can't ask my parents for it. But teenagers never earn much money. Companies don't pay teenagers much.
Boy I don't think that's true. Companies have to pay teenagers the same as adults.
Girl Really? Hmm. I'm not sure about that.
Boy And a job is a good way to meet new people.
Girl That's true. And you're probably bored with all your old friends.
Boy I'm not saying that ...
Girl Anyway, your exams are the most important thing. You need good qualifications to get a good job.
Boy I agree with you. That's why I'm only going to work a few hours a week.

Exercise 1 LISTENING 52 page 101

My name's Shelley and I'm Australian. I'm married and I've got a son. I decided to find out about our family history. I'm very interested in the early history of Australia – I think it's fascinating. And I wanted to find out if we're descendants of British prisoners!

I found out that my family came to Australia from Britain in 1860. But Britain stopped sending prisoners to Australia in 1840. So my family weren't prisoners. I was a bit disappointed ... Then I looked at my husband's family. I found that my husband's great-great-great-great grandparents met in Sydney and got married there in 1826. It was their home for the next forty years. His name was John Bullen and she was Mary Evans. He was a thief and she was the daughter of a thief! I was very interested!

I found out more about John Bullen. John was a poor boy from London. He lived on the streets and stole food to eat. The police caught him and they sent him here to Australia for fourteen years. But John met Mary and they stayed here and started a family. And here is my son now – his descendant – 200 years later!

She finds out more about her husband's ancestors.

Listening task LISTENING 57 page 98

- Gary I've just been to Europe for the first time. I went backpacking with my friend Ian. We travelled around, mostly by train, sometimes by bus and once by scooter! We got scooters in Greece and drove round the island of Andros. It was fantastic but a bit dangerous at times!
- Sandie We've just been to the USA to visit my mum's sister in Florida. The holiday was amazing, but I hated the journey. I went on a plane for the first time, and I really didn't like it. It was worse flying back because I knew what to expect!
- Felix I've been to Spain before, but this year I travelled there by ship for the first time. We drove to the coast in England and put the car on the ship. The journey to Santander took twenty hours. It was OK until we reached the Bay of Biscay. Then I was really sick! It was awful!
- Sophia In the summer holidays we usually go to Italy to visit my dad's family in Pisa. We drive through France to get there. It takes a couple of days, and I hate the journey. But this year I went by plane by myself! It was wonderful. I felt so grown up.
- Luke I'm not keen on travelling, except on my motorbike. I've travelled all over the country on it. I usually take my girlfriend and we go to concerts and festivals. We take our tent and we take our time getting there. It's so relaxing. It's the only way to travel.
